Nazi Head Gets Rally Permit In Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 5 (UPI) — Frank Collin, head of Chicago's Nazis, has been given permission to hold a rally in Marquette Park.

U.S. District Court Judge Hubert L. Will has ordered the Chicago Park district to grant Collin's application for a rally permit in the Southwest Side Park on Aug. 27.

The American Nazi Party had been forbidden to hold a rally at the park in 1969 because the park district refused to grant a permit. U.S. District Court Judge James B. Parsons upheld the park district's decision not to grant the permit.

Parson's decision was overturned last April 27 by the U.S. Appeals Court.
